10. Campus Report: Dr. Christina Drale, Chancellor, University of Arkansas at Little Rock:

Chancellor Christina Drale reported that UA Little Rock is seeing significant growth in several majors, with computer science up 8%, information science up 36% and engineering majors up 12% in the fall. This is significant for the state of Arkansas because these are important growth areas. Business analytics and information systems are also up 5%, but nursing continues to be the largest major on campus, with more than 1000 students.

Research has grown at UA Little Rock. The university received millions of dollars in recent years from sources such as the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security for various subjects, including cybersecurity, bone regeneration scaffolds and sensory stimulation.

Dr. Drale reported that Cybersecurity is a particular focus, and the university is intent on helping more students achieve certificates and degrees in the subject. Students studying cybersecurity at UALR have access to a cloud-based cyber arena. UALR is one of four institutions in the country to offer a graduate certification in cybersecurity through the National Cybersecurity Teaching Academy.

She also reported that UALR has received a $2 million, five-year grant from the National Science Foundation for teacher training

12. Update Report: Dr. Victoria DeFrancesco Soto, Dean, University of Arkansas Clinton School of Public Service:

Dean Victoria DeFrancesco Soto, University of Arkansas Clinton School of Public Service, provided the Board with an update on student projects and the impact they are having on communities and education programs or activities. Discrimination based upon sex can include sexual harassment or sexual violence, such as dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as well as conduct based on sex or sex-stereotyping, even if those acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature.

II. Establishment of Policies and Procedures

Each campus in the UA System shall develop policies and procedures to assure compliance with the requirements of Title IX and state law regarding discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment and sexual violence. Each campus shall:

- A. Title IX Coordinator. Appoint a Title IX Coordinator and notify students and employees of the name, title and contact information of the Title IX Coordinator. Campuses may also designate one or more deputy Title IX coordinators, as appropriate to the structure of the campus.
- B. Notices. Publish a notice of nondiscrimination on the basis of sex, including, but not limited to, on the campus website and in any student handbook or similar publication or other appropriate means of dissemination. The notice must state that inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to the campus Title IX Coordinator or the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education. The notice shall also include the contact information for the campus Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinator, if any. Additionally, the campuses are free to include other information in the notice that may be helpful to an individual such as available campus support services.
- C. Campus Policies. Publish and disseminate its policies prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex and the procedures for reporting, investigation, and resolution of complaints.

Policies should include a description of the conduct that constitutes sex discrimination, sexual or gender-based harassment, and sexual violence, consistent with applicable federal and state laws, and regulations. All other complaints of discrimination, harassment, or misconduct that do not fall within the jurisdiction of Title IX may be made through other campus policies or procedures.

- D. Training. Provide all employees training on sex discrimination and the campus Title IX policies and procedures
